1. I take this opportunity to appreciate the great work done by the team of MIT-WPU in setting up the collaboration and initiating cutting edge project with College of Military Engineering, Pune. The team of MIT-WPU under the leadership of Prof Prasad Khandekar, Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Technology has been relentless in pursuing of their flagship proj of design and launch Micro Satellite for Indian Army.
2. The team has conducted multiple workshops, presentations and interactions to explain the nuances of the project at various fora and to senior officers of the Defence Forces. They have been swift and meticulous in providing replies to the multiple queries and doing research on the topic.
3. In addition to this prestigious project, the team has been instrumental in conclusion of an MOU for establishment of a Centre of Excellence with HQ ARTRAC and opening up of the various courses at MIT-WPU for the Indian Army fraternity. The team is also involved in various projects and interactions on collaboration in academic sphere with the officials at College of Military Engineering (CME). These include providing of PhD guideship, M Tech and PG Diploma courses etc. for the staff and faculty of CME.
4. All these efforts have fructified in the short period of six months because of the hard work, diligence and positive approach of Prof Prasad Khandekar and his team. I would like to put it on record the appreciation from mine and my faculty for the team of MIT-WPU of Prof Prasad Khandekar, Prof Sumedha Sirsikar, Prof Heramb Phadake and Prof Lalit Kulkarni. We look forward to continue this fructified engagements in future too.
